Minneapolis Law Firm Krass Monroe Names New Partner

James Wahl Practices in Franchise, Distribution and Intellectual Property

Minneapolis, MN (January 22, 2010) — Krass Monroe is pleased to announce the naming of James A. Wahl as a new partner. According to firm President, Mark Moxness, “Jim has proven his ability to help clients solve critical business challenges. We are pleased to have Jim join the partner ranks at Krass Monroe.”

Wahl is the Co-Chair of the Franchise, Distribution and Intellectual Property Practice Group of Krass Monroe. His practice concentrates on structuring, documenting, registering and implementing franchise and distribution programs, and on registering and protecting clients’ trademark and copyright interests. He is admitted to the Bar in Minnesota and the United States District Court, District of Minnesota and is a member of the Minnesota State, Hennepin County and American Bar Associations. He has been named a “Super Lawyer” by Minnesota Law & Politics and honored as a “Legal Eagle” by Franchise Times magazine. Jim received his Juris Doctor degree from the University of Minnesota Law School.

Krass Monroe has approximately 25 legal professionals many of whom have been locally and nationally recognized as industry leaders. As “More Than a Law Firm,” Krass Monroe offers a comprehensive array of services at the local, regional, national and international levels in areas including business law, corporate finance, mergers and acquisitions, franchise, distribution and intellectual property law, litigation, public finance, real estate, taxation, and wealth preservation.
