Minneapolis Law Firm Monroe Moxness Berg Names New Shareholder

Ryan Palmer Practices in Franchise, Distribution and Intellectual Property

MINNEAPOLIS – January 24, 2011 — Monroe Moxness Berg is pleased to announce the election of Ryan R. Palmer as a new firm shareholder. According to the firm's President, Mark Moxness, "Ryan is a highly competent and well-rounded professional who has the respect of his peers and our clients. He is an exceptional attorney, and we are pleased to have him join the shareholder ranks."

Palmer is a member of the firm's Franchise, Distribution and Intellectual Property Practice Group. He counsels a wide range of domestic and international franchisors, licensors, and manufacturers in the sale and distribution of their products and services and advises clients in the selection, registration, and enforcement of trademarks, copyrights, and domain names. He has been with the firm since 2003.

Palmer has been named a "Rising Star" by Minnesota Law & Politics magazine and honored as a "Legal Eagle" by Franchise Times magazine. He received a J.D. degree from the University of St. Thomas School of Law, where he was the founding editor-in-chief of the school's law review.
